

myWorld Photo Competition

THE UNIVERSITY OF MELBOURNE

PRIZE

$150 Amazon voucher

Photos should encapsulate your mobility experience while studying away from Melbourne – be creative!

- Include your name and names of others in the photo, as well as your host institution, and Melbourne student ID (only current students are eligible)
- Provide up to 50 words describing your photo and experience, including where it was taken
- Deadline: Photos (2 max) will be accepted until Friday 29th August 2014 send as e-mail attachments to Melbourne Global Mobility

Send the highest quality photo possible but use the following format requirements for your photo:

Dimensions: 800 x 600 pixels or vice versa

Resolution: 300 dots per inch (dpi)

File size: Not more than 2MB

Format: JPEG

Anyone who is identifiable in the photo must sign the attached form (62 KB pdf) which allows the University to use your photo in web and print publications. You may sign, scan and email the form along with your photos. (Note: If no individuals feature prominently in the photo your entry serves as permission of photo use) If you are unable to scan and email the form please drop it in to our office in the John Smyth Building (Building 197).

Judging will take place via the MGM Facebook page. After the closing date all photos will be uploaded to our FB page at the same time and students, colleagues and friends will be asked to vote for their favourite photo by 'liking' it. At 5pm on Thursday 18th September, the photo with the most 'likes' will be identified as the winner of this semester's photo competition.

Melbourne Global Mobility
John Smyth Building
University of Melbourne, 3010

For more Returnee Resources, visit
<http://mobility.unimelb.edu.au/outbound/returning-home/>

Hiking the hills, eating two gelatos a day and swimming in the crystal waters of Cinque Terre remains a huge highlight of my otherwise chilly exchange in Edinburgh. Laura, winner of the 2013 photo competition.